SYDNEY CUP DINNER

COMMITTEEMAN PETER TWIGG GETS A POINTER OR TWO FROM CHAMPION JOCKEYS
RON QUINTON AND PETER COOK.

CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

The committee hosted a cocktail party on April 11 for members who became eligible for senior membership this year. Once again we extend our congratulations to the fifteen members who have completed 35 years' membership of Tattersall's. This could well be a record number in any one year for the Club, as in my experience on the committee this was certainly the largest number that had attended this important annual cocktail party. It was a great honour for each of them to receive their senior membership badge.

This function, closely followed the luncheon recently given for the seven members who have completed 50 years' continuous membership, indicates the solid core of long-time membership of Tattersall's Club by a great number of our members.

As mentioned in my previous message, the Olympic Games Fund-Raising Luncheon will be held in the 1st floor Club Room on Friday, July 22, and further details appear elsewhere in this magazine. Each of the clubs within Tattersall's will be holding their own functions or conducting their own fund-raising effort. In addition it is pleasing to see that City Tattersall's and Tattersall's bookmakers have combined to support the luncheon at our Club to support this worthy appeal.

On behalf of all of our members I extend to David McNicoll, CBE, our deepest sympathy in the recent passing of his wife Jean. It certainly was a tragic loss for David.

The recent formal Sydney Cup Dinner held in the Club was once again a social highlight of the year. Congratulations to our guest speaker, jockey Peter Cook, for his interesting address through an interview with prominent racing identity Johnny Tapp. Peter, of course, went on to win the Sydney Cup on "Veloso" and it was a case of "I told you so" because he was certainly confident at the dinner. I cannot let the occasion pass without our sincere congratulations and thanks to Johnny Tapp who did a phantom call of the Sydney Cup, and in addition gave us a ten-minute history of the Cup in what has to go down as one of the most fascinating talks on racing ever heard. It was absolutely terrific and thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

The new billiard and snooker honour board is ready for display and shortly will be placed in the entrance foyer on the 2nd floor. Congratulations to our maintenance supervisor, Vic Williamson, for the fantastic job he did on its restoration, and also our thanks to Syd Lane and our Club secretary, Norman Smith, for the great job they did in tracing the winners over the last 14 years or so. Finally our sincere thanks for the generosity of keen billiards and snooker player and previous championship winner, George Mousally, for his donation of the cost of all the work involved and for his thoughtful suggestion that made this all possible.

A new facility for members who wish to look after their fitness, or like myself need to lose weight, is announced in this issue. Well-known former champion boxer and Rugby League team trainer Billy Todd, is now available on the third floor to help – no charge to members. He is a thoroughly-professional man in training others in physical fitness.

Finally, I must correct an oversight in our last issue in the story about the Wellington Boot Race Meeting. As ever the trophies were obtained through member Brian O'Connor, MBE, who is always a most generous man in the provision of this Club's trophies. He is a great supporter of our many functions. The Wellington Boot Meeting trophies were no exception and were greatly appreciated by the recipients. The Club says thanks once again to you Brian.

AUSTRALIA'S FIRST MASTER

One of Australia's outstanding painters and sculptors of the early twentieth century, George Lambert's work may be found throughout the Commonwealth. From the sombre fallen soldier in the crypt of Sydney's St Mary's Cathedral to the subtle delicate pencil portraits, he brought his own special style.

I've always admired this great artist. He was tagged as Australia's FIRST master. He told young artists "painting could not exist without drawing" — how true.

I feel we have a lot of artists enjoying a high demand for their work that cannot draw. They get away with gimmick and colour technique — give me the real talent of George Lambert.

Check it out in the gallery some time.

MELBOURNE CUP WINNER!

Aussie film "Phar Lap" is destined for Melbourne Cup-winning honours in the motion picture industry ratings. I recently sat in on the Channel 9-Hoyts' satellite hone in live academy awards.

Tattersall's member (Hoyts' chief, Terry Jackman) along with the director told me about the "track gallops" — or the rough-cut runs.

The good oil from the film-track is we've got another champion in the Australian film stables. Keep your binoculars on the first Tuesday in November when you can view the winning film "Phar Lap".

WINE AND DINE

Club member and olympic swim champion John Devitt is one of the willing workers for the Olympic Games Luncheon on Friday, July 22 at Tattersall's Club.

Club member Terry Beattie was one of the merry team at Tattersall's. Bob Fraser hosted a lunch to welcome home Bob Radford (executive director, NSW Cricket Association) and Brian Taber after their tour of Zimbabwe with the Australian Under-25 National Cricket Team.

Present were Paul Rickey, brother Robert Rickey (ex-captain of Manly), Colin Vaughan and Ron Luxton (Rothmans' Sports Foundation).

It's always a pleasure to see genial, happy members Neville Merchant and Bob Hodgson. They're top-flight advertising men in a very competitive field. They unwind, dine and wine for a few happy moments enjoying the fellowship of Tattersall's.

Both like a tilt at the "pokies". The only discordant note that splits the air is when Neville finds the elusive ace on the wrong line.

There was great celebration on the occasion of the Bingham's golden wedding anniversary.

Member Charles Bingham and his wife Dorothy were entertained at dinner in the Club. A very merry and happy function indeed, daughter Dorothy and husband John Hoddinett, niece Joan McHarg and husband John, nephew Clive Maddrell and wife Pam, also Bert Hill and wife Jean. Charles is a Club regular and his many friends join in congratulations.

A unique schoolboy sporting achievement was celebrated in the dining room. The occasion was Riverview College's winning the GPS Firsts and Seconds Tennis Competition for 1983. The team members, their parents and coaches all gathered at Tattersall's to celebrate the historic event. Included among the guests were members Pat Bridger, his wife Joan, Michael O'Dea and his wife Marianne, who were all justifiably proud of their son's achievement.

Member Alf Walker arranged a farewell party to visitors Agnes and Sam Watson returning to Darlington, England.

Agnes is the sister-in-law of Mrs Anne Buchanan of Longueville. Also present were Mr and Mrs Robert Buchanan and Miss Lynn Buchanan of Longueville. We wish the Watsons a safe journey.

Kevin Roche found the ideal way to have a double celebration at Tattersall's. It was the birthday of Ray and Mary-Anne Fleming. Present were Kevin, Jacqueline, Mary-Louise, Tom and Kevin Roche, Jnr.

Joe and Maureen McGee hosted a late St Patrick's Day dinner party. In the gathering of the green we found Jim and Maureen Hyde, Keith and Joanne Parker with Barry and Anne Gow. What a foin way to celebrate the wearing of their favourite colour.

Member Graham Nicholson with wife Millicent-Anne chose Tattersall's dining area for daughter Margaret's 14th birthday evening. Her brother James (11 years) thought it was just great to be in the party, too.

Darcy Cashmere was proud to arrange the 18th birthday celebration for daughter Nicola at Tattersall's.

Present were his wife Patricia, sister Shirley, brother-in-law John Pettit, mother Ivy, mother-in-law Mrs Coutts and daughter Shannon and nephew Greg.

A real family group for a very important and happy day in the life of Nicola.

The Colemans of Hawks Nest arranged a dinner party at Tattersall's to celebrate the marriage of eldest daughter Jane to John Pacy, only son of Dr and Mrs J. R. Pacy of Tea Gardens. John has recently graduated in law from Sydney University and Jane has her Bachelor of Education Arts Degree. They plan to live in the country. We offer a wish of lasting happiness to Jane and John. — Ed.

The John Anderson party, after the Randwick races, was merry and bright. Mr and Mrs Beavis of Cowra and Mr and Mrs Locke from Bathurst was in the party. They dined, danced and enjoyed the Tattersall's Club hospitality.

The Graham Nicholson birthday party at Tattersall's was a real family affair. Wife Millicent-Anne was with daughter Margaret and son James and had a wonderful evening.

Many family parties find their way to the ideal area for celebration — the fourth floor at Tattersall's.

The inimitable Rod O'Loan gathered some friends down from Brisbane and enjoyed a delightful dinner at Tattersall's. Rod is a very vibrant character and great supporter of the Club through the years.

Colin McCartney's 40th wedding anniversary dinner at Tattersall's, with his wife, Mr and Mrs Peter McCartney and daughter, was a very splendid evening. Mrs G. Brooks, from London, was in the party staged in the beautiful surroundings of Tattersall's dining room.

Small golden wedding party for Jack and Leah Shaffron. Party included Mr and Mrs Frank Bunyard and Geoff and Rhona Eastment. Jack and Leah plan further family celebrations for their golden years.

There's more congratulations for member Jack; he recently joined the 50-year Tattersall's membership ranks (joined November 20, 1933).

Club member servicemen were seen in full force at the Club on Anzac Day. Some very fine decorations adorned their chests. Secretary Norm Smith, an "old digger", was very much at home with them as usual. He made the various groups very welcome.

Sid Lorking and Bill Hannan congratulating each other on 50 years' membership of Tattersall's Club. Both are active members and we all join in wishing you both continued good health and Tattersall's happiness. — Ed.

AT THE WEARIN' O' THE GREEN

The Green Tie Evening in the magnificent Club Room at Tattersall's was a great success in every way, was magically memorable and totally enjoyable.

Every known shade of green was in evidence in various adornments worn by the happy guests, incorporated in table decorations and of course included in the tastefully-presented menu.

The Tollana Tokay Riesling, a Gold Medal winner at the recent Royal Easter Show, as well as having the crisp fruit and acid combination on the middle palate is a pale green to straw shade with an elegant varietal nose.

The Galway Bay spinach soup was delightful and was followed by a delicious dish, Rack of Lamb Killarney. The dessert, Irish Gooseberry Fool, did just that, the Dublin cheese platter was comprehensive and Leprechaun Irish Coffee and mints terminated an elegant feast.

It was just too much to expect to be served with a green Cabernet Sauvignon but McWilliams great wine was certainly the next best thing.

The magical night's entertainment, the unforgettable dancing girls, the sentimental ballads, songs like 'Danny Boy', 'Galway Bay', 'Bridge over Troubled Waters', almost brought a tear to some eyes.

Val and John Barnes, Eileen and Brian Mortenson, Pauline and Sid Kay, Pat and Geoff Chapman were among the happy throng.

Zella and Norman Rogers hosted a large party who obviously enjoyed every moment of Tattersall's Green Tie Evening.

But where was our own real live Leprechaun?

Member Rob Jarman and wife Norma arranged a dinner party to celebrate the birthdays of their daughter Anne-Maree and daughter-in-law Jennifer. There was a special surprise for Anne-Maree, her grandparents and auntie were guests at the celebrations. Thirteen were in the party, but no one was suspicious about the supposedly-unlucky number. Happiness and fun made it a night to remember.

Tattersall's Club Wedding Reception

Mr and Mrs P. Boidin of Maroubra held a wedding reception for their youngest daughter Donna at Tattersall's. The bridegroom, Alvaro Salomoni is the eldest son of Mr and Mrs A. Salomoni of Balmain. One hundred and fifteen guests attended the reception which was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone.

The happy couple are honeymooning in Europe.

Many members are using the wonderful facilities for the perfect wedding reception party.

Members Vince O'Gorman and Ray Lenehan were amongst the guests present.

HAPPY NIGHT AT TATTERSALL'S

Tattersall's Club Black Tie 1983 Sydney Cup Dinner was an excellent social occasion. Set in the delightful Club Room it was a perfect venue for one of our finest gatherings each year. Chairman Keith and Mrs Moremon were perfect hosts. At their table were: guest-of-honour Sir Edward Williams, KCMG, KBE with Lady Williams, AJC chairman Sir James and Lady Carr, STC chairman Sir Clyde and Lady Kennedy and City Tattersall's chairman Mr Laurie and Mrs Taylor. The pre-dinner drink was a very convivial and colourful scene as guests readied for the evening. Sporting commentator Johnny Tapp gave an authoritative history of the Sydney Cup. (Congratulations Johnny, it was outstanding. — Ed.). His phantom call didn't produce the winner but was well received by members and guests. In-form jockey Peter Cook was interviewed by Johnny and gave a tip for the ultimate winner, his mount "Veloso". The Sydney Cup Dinner is an annual event and a most popular evening.

Mrs Tony McSweeney looked magnificent and elegant.

Mike McCormack Very Sharp in Silver Sharp Event

Ashley Reed lands his second point score of the season when he held off Bobby Hill by the proverbial point 35-34 with Tony King in 3rd place on 30½.

Racing has been of a very high standard especially the performances of Greg Goold, Mike McCormack and John Barrell in their various events.

Only one point separates the leaders in 'Tony McSweeney's Silver Sharp Trophy' with Mike McCormack on 142, followed by Tony King 141 with Danny O'Connor in third berth on 130, whilst ten others are all within striking distance.

Tom Powell's Trophy is again as close as anticipated with Tony King grimly holding a half point lead from Greg Goold and Ashley Reed with Andrew Barrell and Mike McCormack a further point astern.

Considerable interest has been created by the introduction of the Jack Mandel Family Event on each Tuesday with the finishes being that close Chris Dobbins was heard remarking (and I quote) 'fantastic, what wonderful handicapping'.

Owing to missing five events in the Hillston 80yds handicap Jack Levy has lost his position of points leader, but still retains most wins, 10 from Andrew Barrell 9, followed by Greg Goold 8.

The points leader in the Hillston is Gerald McCormack 117, Andrew Barrell 112, Mike McCormack 111½, Jack Levy 110, Tony King 108 and John Barrell 106.

Newcomers welcomed during the month were John Marshall, Robert McPhail, Baden Gleeson and Robert Farrell, four fine additions to our number of first-class performers.

What a pleasure to see smiling Syd Kay back in the fold together with Roger Farrell, Doug Salier, Charlie Griffiths and Martin McRobert. McRobert Senior was enthusiastically welcomed by his many friends in the Club.

Fastest times recorded were Greg Goold 19 and 19-4, John Barrell 19-7, Mike McCormack 20-4 and 20-5, Hugh Keller 20-4 and Mike Saunders 21-9.

Congratulations to Adrian Abbott on the win of 'My Sharvain' at Randwick on opening day. Keep up the good work Adrian.

SNOOKER AND BILLIARDS

by Doug Jordan

The last reminder! Our annual snooker and billiards tournaments' nominations close on April 28. Auction and draw on May 23, play commences May 24.

Backgammon has had a preference over snooker recently, however, this situation is expected to be reversed during the next few months.

As a newly-appointed handicapper, I am consistently asked about individual handicaps, and I can assure all competitors that the six-man handicapping committee will endeavour to satisfy all contestants. I repeat that players who display their form in our Club will not suffer any penalties.

There are certain players who have ability in practice but go unconscious in tournaments. I have witnessed a number of such players years ago in the Western Australian Tattersall's Club tournament, a competitor was seen to chalk the cue ball. Another ordered the Club clock stopped, the ticking was distracting him.

Eddie Charlton has already nominated in both the billiards and snooker tournaments. He was runner-up in last year's World Billiards Championships. Last year Eddie played off 750 behind in our billiards tournament. It is also interesting to note that Eddie, in the only four of our snooker tournaments in which he has competed, has been defeated on the black each time. Fine handicapping. Practice up boys, this tournament will be a beauty.

Tattersall's Lawn Bowls Interstate and Local Action

Our Club Pairs final was played at City Bowling Club in March. It was won by Jim Whyte and Jim Williams defeating Staff Callinan and Harold Hill 18/16 in a close match. Congratulations to both teams.

TATTERSALL'S INTERSTATE BOWLS CARNIVAL

Host State South Australia, played in April. This year Western Australia came back with a vengeance after an absence of some years.

Their teams were well balanced and well organised — they were strong enough to have "white pocket" players in reserve at times — so we were told.

However Sydney Tattersall's did not give in willingly and made the Black Swans work hard.

Finally, however, the trophy won at Kensington in Sydney last year had to be handed over to a happy Western Australian manager.

TEAM 1: P. McGrath, S. Adams, J. Stratton, L. Burke — Won 5, Lost 3, Margin +37 — TOTAL 131/94.

TEAM 2: S. Callinan, V. Richards, J. Whyte, L. Clark — Won 4, Lost 4, Margin -4 — TOTAL 102/106.

TEAM 3: A. Walker, D. Gibson, T. Anderson, F. Mantel — Won 4, Lost 4, Margin +8 — TOTAL 117/109.

WINNERS	POINTS
1. Perth Tattersall's	7W/1L 36½
2. City Tattersall's	6W/2L 34
3. Newcastle Tatts	5W/3L 32
4. Sydney Tatts	5W/3L 28

Congratulations to all the players for a great and well-run tournament so ably organised by Charlie Gunn in Adelaide. Although the games were delayed for 24 hours with some heavy weather, the wine-tasting and merriment continued.

It was a wet track for the recent Australian Championships at Holdfast Bay. It must have suited the Western State.

Next year in March 1984 we journey to Canberra to endeavour to win the coveted interstate trophy.

GOOD BOWLING — Tim Anderson.

Rarer than Furs are Fur specialists

Furs are available at many shops in Sydney. Yet very few establishments specialise in Furs. Very few establishments know furs.

Sound judgment would suggest that it is important to choose a Furrier as carefully as the precious Fur you seek.

The Fur collection at every Hammerman showroom is both breathtaking and extensive. Every Fur garment is carefully selected by us.

On the subject of style and quality of Furs, few people are better qualified or more willing to help, than our specialists. We tell you everything about a Fur before you buy it. In detail.

Perhaps that's why our clientele keep coming back . . . for a little of Hammerman's service — and a lot of Hammerman's good advice.

Great Club Interest in Tattersall's Golf Opening Day!

New South Wales proved a testing layout for our first outing of 1983, the day being well attended with 63 starters teeing off in overcast conditions, with a 'gentle' southerly adding to the confusion. The committee and ground staff are to be congratulated on the condition of the course, but scoring was indicative of the elements with four pairs each returning a meagre total of 43 points.

Local knowledge came to the fore with local member Col Pearce and Wal Fielding winning on a countback on the last six holes from their opposition, also local members, Ron Everett and Hugh Gage. John Barras and Bob Hefferman and Peter Bradfield and visitor Mike Green also finished on 43.

John Barras was one of the few players to master the conditions, winning the members' singles with a fine score of 38 points. Runner-up was Peter Bradfield on 33 with Rob Elvy on 32.

Visitors' singles was won by Robbie Landis' visitor, Brian Carter from The Lakes, who also took a liking to the conditions with a fine round of 38 points, playing in the same four as Barras, they showed a lot of cunning by playing the back nine first before the southerly really began to blow. Runner-up was Bill Harmer with Bill Moore on 33.

Our next outing is at Killara on June 2 followed by Royal Sydney on Friday, July 15.

Other confirmed bookings are:

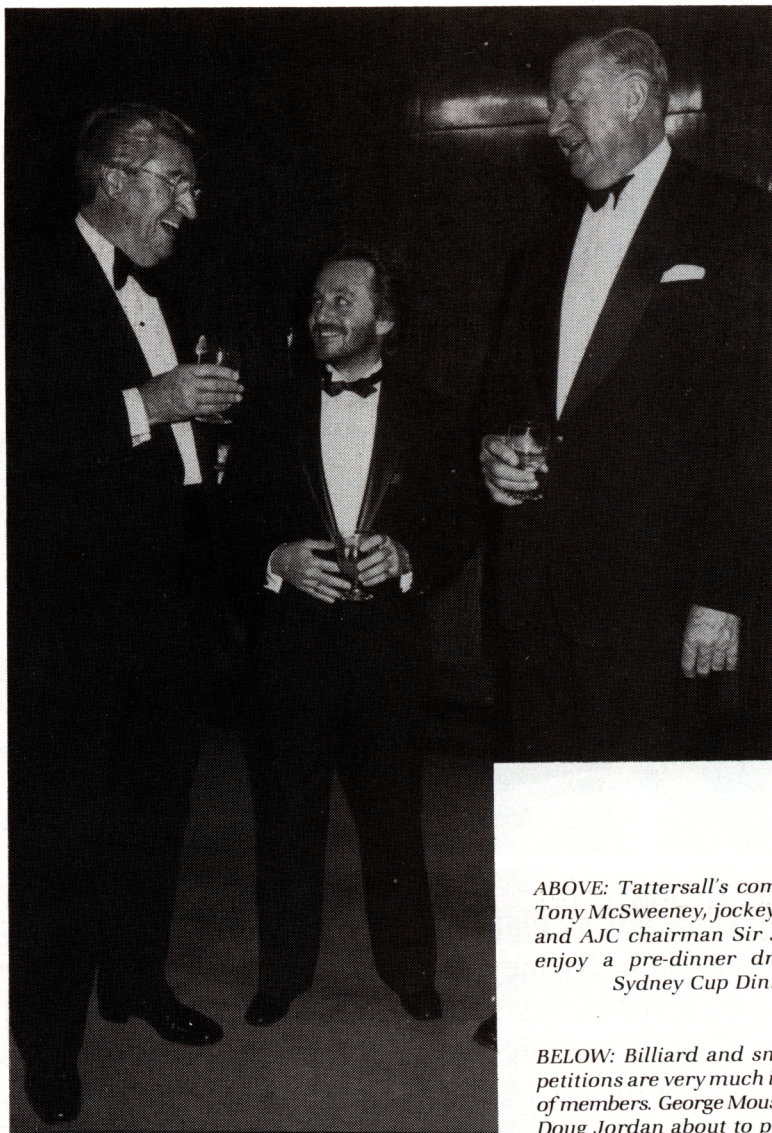

The Lakes — September 15.

Pymble — October 4.

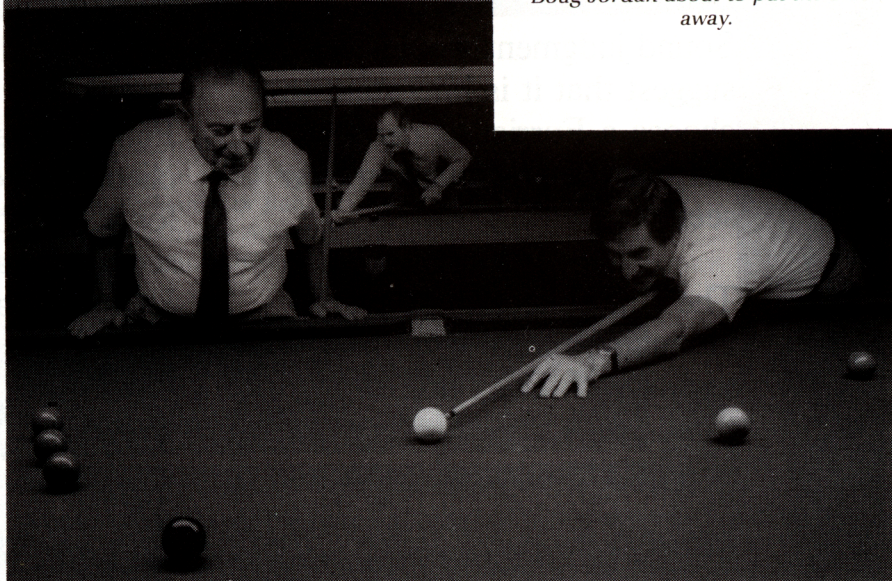

Manly — December 15.

We are endeavouring to arrange a further outing at The Australian to complete our programme.

... the long and the short

BELOW: Billiard and snooker competitions are very much in the minds of members. George Mousally watches Doug Jordan about to put the black away.

Excellent Outings . . . Thredbo and Perisher Calling!

The early indications for the 1983 season are encouraging, with snowfalls during April and keen interest being shown by Tattersall's skiers in the 1983 programme.

Ski Club members have been separately advised of the arrangements at both Thredbo and Perisher and already bookings are heavy for these two excellent outings in the snow.

The season will start with the family week at Roslyn Lodge at Thredbo from Saturday, June 25 to Saturday, July 2. This is the same week as in previous years. Roslyn is a superb lodge with every comfort for the skier and his family. The cost for bed and breakfast is $175 per person for the week; other costs for the evening meal and liquor are shared by the participants. Bookings are already heavy and members interested should contact Tattersall's office for details.

Our "Bucks' Gourmet" week at Wirruna Lodge in Perisher Valley is from Saturday, July 16 to Saturday, July 23. This is a week later than last year and the snow is usually dependable by mid-July. Details of the excellent week's fun may be obtained from Debbie Sibson at Tattersall's office or from the Club noticeboard on the second floor.

We are very fortunate in having regular access to two fine lodges and our Roslyn and Wirruna weeks are now firmly established in Tattersall's

Anthony Berkman, keen skier of the Tattersall's Section, awaits the season with confidence.

Ski Club calendar. New participants are always welcome, and a week of fun and good fellowship is assured.

Ski Club secretary Anthony Berkman made up for last season's poor conditions by spending part of the "off" season at Aspen. He experienced excellent skiing conditions during his two-week visit, so let's hope the 1983 Australian winter follows the northern hemisphere pattern.

SKI LODGE ACCOMMODATION FOR CLUB MEMBERS

Most are aware of the acute "on snow" accommodation shortage. However, a Perisher Valley lodge operator has moved to solve this problem for real ski enthusiasts. The operator has formed a "Priority Booking Club" which gives members the opportunity of preferential booking over normal commercial users.

The Club benefits extend beyond booking priority, members receive additional benefits in the form of reduced tariffs for all their family. This benefit can mean up to a 50 per cent reduction in accommodation charges. Of course the membership of the Priority Booking Club is strictly limited and those contemplating investigation of this opportunity should contact the operators as soon as possible on 331 7341. The booking opportunity is not restricted to particular parts of the season, school holidays are operated if necessary on a ballot system so that all members with school children can be accommodated over a few years.

GET TO KNOW BOOKMAKER TASSIE

You won't meet a more pleasant, forthright bookmaker on any course than Tassie Stavrianos. (He's not as complicated as his name is to pronounce). Tassie served his full "apprenticeship" in bookmaking in the Flat and Leger, graduating through the Paddock to the Rails. Very happily married with wife Vee. Their two sons, James 14 and Adrian 10, attend a fine college at Waverley. Tassie prefers straight-out betting rather than each-way. "You can watch a race and know where you stand", says Tas. "The each-way results can vary so much — the picture is not so clear for forward planning. Good horses, well-promoted racing carnivals and top public facilities are racing musts. The public are investing higher stakes these days, 'the norm' is not less than ten dollars," he says. Tassie loves a game at his NSW Golf Club and follows rugby when time permits. Members are invited by Tassie to introduce themselves and take advantage of the credit-betting facilities he offers. — Ed.
